UVI-SBDC Offers Seminar on Web Marketing
by Source staff

July 12, 2007 - The UVI Small Business Development Center (SBDC) presents the seminar: "Fundamentals of Web Marketing: Kick Your Site into HIGH Gear!" It will be held from 6-8 p.m., on Wednesday, July 25, at the UVI-Small Business Development Center Training Facility, 2nd floor. The facility is in the east wing of the Nisky Center, Suite 720, St. Thomas. The presenter is Monéca Pinkett-Wilkins of TechConnect.vi.

Admission for the seminar is $20; pre-registration and payment are required by 4 p.m., Monday, July 23. Registration is on a first come, first pay basis. Seating is limited to 20 persons. There are no discounts for this session.

Have you ever wondered how to make your website stand out? Do you spend time thinking that something needs to be different in order to have a successful site; however, you just aren't sure what? Here is a seminar to help you get more interest into your Web site, and kick your seasoned site into higher gear! Learn the basics of assessing consumer attraction, interactive lead generation, content management, measuring traffic and search engine friendliness.

There are fundamental techniques used by industry's leading advertising companies to ensure that Web sites are investments, instead of expenses.

To pre-register or for more information on this seminar, call 776-3206, fax: 775-3756 or go to the Web site at www.sbdcvi.org
